

NATIONAL JEWISH WAR MEMORIAL

★ The National Jewish War Memorial and Military Burial Plot is located in Oakridge Jewish Cemetery, Hillside, Ill. on U.S. 330 at Roosevelt and Mannheim roads (outskirts of Chicago). The Memorial and Plot commemorate the services rendered the United States by its Jewish citizens in periods of national emergency. Yarmo-DeVere Post No. 469, American Legion, is sponsor and sole leaseholder.

Dear Friend:

I am privileged, in behalf of Yarmo-DeVere Post No. 469, The American Legion; the Yarmo-DeVere Unit, American Legion Auxiliary; and Yarmo-De Vere Squadron, Sons of American Legion, to invite you and your family to witness the dedication of the NATIONAL JEWISH WAR MEMORIAL and Military Burial Plot in Oakridge Jewish Cemetery, Roosevelt and Mannheim Roads, on Sunday, September 8, 1940, at two p. m.

An appropriate commemorative program will mark the first time national recognition is given publicly to Americans of Jewish Faith who served the United States in periods of national emergency. May I expect you on this historic occasion?

Sincerely yours,
